ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

RESPONSIBLE TOURISM

- Cottar's 1920's Camp is certified as a Global Ecosphere Retreat, only one of ten such accredited destinations globally.
- Cottar's 1920's Camp is Gold rated for the Kenya Eco tourism accreditation - Gold is the highest sustainability standards in East Africa
- The camp is on the Olderikesi group ranch, adjoining the Maasai Mara National Reserve and the Serengeti National Park. The location is a critical dispersal area and wildlife corridor.
- Cottar's have a charitable trust called the Cottar's Wildlife Conservation Trust (CWCT).
- CWCT are working towards a sustainable conservancy for the area, in partnership with the community. Such a conservancy would manage the land on behalf of the community and pay market rates for the land to the community. Management of the conservancy will protect the critical wildlife corridor and its species, mitigate the challenge of overgrazing by wildlife and invest in human development initiatives.
- CWCT invest in key social public goods such as schooling, water supply and medical support.
- Cottar's promote women's handiwork for sale to visitors.
- CWCT operate a repeater VHF station and 5 radios for community scouts for liaison on ambulance and medical needs, security issues and wildlife poaching.
- More than 40% of the staff are employed from the local community.
- Cottar's were the leaders in a successful bid to stop a major lodge development in the Mara National Reserve that would permanently have damaged the last wilderness area in the Reserve.
- Revenue for the rental of land goes directly to the landowners.
- Cottar's supports a Forest Protection Program - arresting illegal woodcutters of cedar trees on hills behind camp and planting of indigenous trees.

SPECIAL FEATURES & KEY WILDLIFE IN THE AREA

- Cottar's maintains the original safari tradition and feel of the 1920's. An authentic white 1920's style camp, with no fences or manmade structures (other than roads) for hundreds of kilometres.
- The South East Mara has most of the Mara's Rhino population, so Cottar's guests see them often. There are also many lion, leopard, cheetah, elephant, buffalo, wildebeest, zebra, gazelle and other migratory wildlife. Colobus monkeys can be seen in the hills behind the camp.
- The hills are great for hill walks, where Verreaux's eagles can be seen on cliff nesting sites, as well as rare Chandler's reedbuck in the moor-like hill tops.
- Cottar's does have a varied hilly terrain & wilderness feel to its area, making drives private. Pure wilderness, privacy & uninterrupted views - no cars or other lodges, no balloons - this is what is different about our area.

MAP OF AFRICA, KENYA, MAASAI MARA & THE GREAT ANNUAL WILDEBEEST MIGRATION

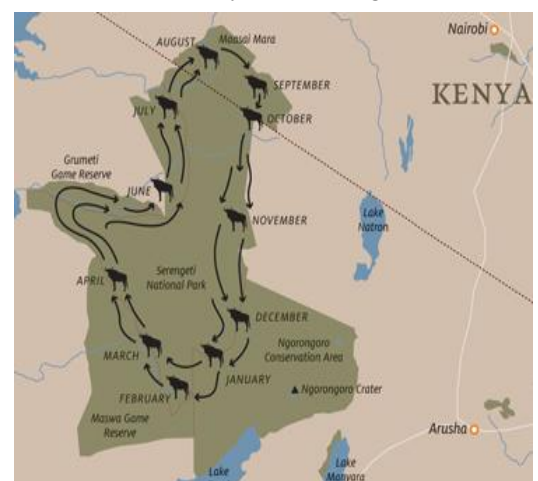

The Masai Mara in the south of Kenya is famous for its astounding variety of wildlife. With both resident and transient populations of lion, leopard, cheetah, hyena, giraffe, elephant, to name a few, as well as over 450 bird species, the vast fertile plains are dense with game.

The area has been classified among the “Seven wonders of the world” due to the extraordinary annual migration from July to November when over 1.3 million wildebeest and zebras cross the Serengeti to the Mara in search of greener pastures.

However, the Mara National Reserve itself, measuring 373,000 acres, is only a fraction of the Greater Mara-Serengeti Ecosystem, much of which falls under ownership of pastoralists. Some of the ecosystem’s prime game viewing lies within the conservation area surrounding the Reserve. These conservancies have been set up by the private sector in partnership with local landowners in order to conserve the larger Mara ecosystem by extending the protected area for wildlife and to standardize income distribution and eco-systems management.

Cottar’s 1920’s Safari Camp & Cottar’s Private House are situated in an untouched exclusive 27,000-acre concession area in Olderikesi, bordering the Serengeti, Mara and LoBiondo reserves. The luxurious camp and the pristine area guarantee privacy and an abundance of wildlife.

Located on the far south Eastern part of the Mara, we are the first to see the great wildebeest migration coming in and we are the last to see the herds heading back South into the Serengeti

WEDDINGS & BLESSINGS AT COTTARS 1920'S CAMP

Cottars has had the pleasure of organising many beautiful weddings for our guests - from small, simple ceremonies involving a champagne celebration at the end of a game drive, to larger 3 day events with over 60 guests. Cottars will ensure a stress-free safari experience. We will ensure that all paperwork and arrangements run meticulously smooth, so that the wedding couple can sit back and enjoy their dream wedding. We have four different options you can choose from (please see the different costs below).

OPTION ONE: YOUR WEDDING ORGANIZED BY COTTAR'S

If you would like us to organise the entire wedding from start to finish then you will need to book both the wedding planner and the camp and add on any extra's as per the below. This includes Cottar's doing all of the necessary paperwork in Nairobi plus organising all the aspects of the wedding at Cottar's. If Cottar's are organising the paperwork for the clients we will need photocopies of all the necessary paperwork required (as listed below) one month prior to the clients' arrival. The clients must arrive with the original documents in order to get the special marriage license granted at Sheria House.

Cottar's Wedding Planner fee includes the following:

1. Supervision of all necessary paperwork in Kenya prior to the marriage.
2. Transport for the betrothed in order to complete all official requirements.
3. Cottar's representative will assist the betrothed in completing all relevant forms & official civil requirements.
4. All necessary fees for the marriage.
5. Introduction to a leader of the ceremony (subject to religious or other denomination & preferences).
6. Wedding party planning and itinerary (pre & post event).

N.B. Once the license has been obtained, either the District officer or District commissioner of the area can marry the couple in a non-religious ceremony and a marriage certificate is duly signed and given to the married couple.

OPTION TWO: YOUR WEDDING AT COTTAR'S ORGANIZED BY YOU

If you are organising the paperwork directly, the couple must arrive at the camp with the special license that they have obtained from Sheria House. The DC will be organized by Cottar's and he/she will need to see the original copies of the required paperwork. The wedding cannot take place without this documentation and the camp will not be held responsible if the paperwork is not complete.

OPTION THREE: YOUR WEDDING AT COTTAR'S CAMP ORGANIZED BY US

(Same as Option 1) except we organize to bring the District Officer to camp and officiate the ceremony.

OPTION FOUR: BLESSING AT COTTAR'S

Cottar's can organise a traditional blessing ceremony by one of the local community's elders to celebrate the couple's union. This requires very little paperwork and no official certificates are supplied.
